

The Democratic managers of Macon county distributed thousands of copies of the forged Chinese letter in this city the night before the election, and yet no Democrat has been found who is willing to acknowledge that he had anything to do with having them circulated. Even the editor of the Review declares that he has no knowledge of how they got before the public. No printing office in this city had a stereotype plate of the Chinese letter, but the Review office, and it would be strange if the proprietor of that paper would let his property disappear from his office without some information as to what disposition would be made of it. Did the managers of the Democratic party deceive the proprietor of the Review when they obtained his consent to loan them the Chinese plate? Were they afraid that he would refuse to allow them the use of it, especially after he had not hesitated to use it in his paper? Is it not stretching the credulity of the people a little too much to ask the public to believe that the editor of the Review had no knowledge of what was going to be done when he loaned his Democratic friends the stereotype plate of the Chinese letter?

INTER-OCEAN ITEMS.

At public auction, I will offer for sale to the highest bidder the entire stock and fixtures of the Democratic party at my office this evening at early candle light. It consists mainly in One platform somewhat dilapidated. One tariff letter as good as new. One 329 stencil plate with several tons of chalk. Five hundred thousand lithographed copies of the forged Chinese letters. A large package of well assorted lies, with any number of banners, torches, oil cans, and empty bottles, and a few steel rails, and a couple of blind mules.

All bids over five cents must be accompanied by the cash.

By order of the Democratic Committee: C. C. H. Chairman.

The Democratic party has never been quite itself since it hung its State's rights banners on the Appomattox apple tree. The boys in blue some way got the idea that they were to stay there, and we guess they will.

Philip and Barnum have got a good deal of notoriety, but not more than hundreds of others who are quietly serving out their sentences in our State penitentiaries.

Winfield Scott Hancock, stand up. What do you think of the tariff now?

"As a local issue, I consider it played out."

If Showman Barnum should exhibit Forger Barnum as a part of his circus he would be a great curiosity.

When such fellows as Barnum and Philip are playing, nothing but clubs should be used as trumps.

The assets of the Democratic party to-day consist of a solid South and a forged letter.

The Democratic party has not been healthy for a long time, poor thing.

Carter Harrison's eagle is bald-headed at both ends.

I wish I was on that top rail again. —David Davis.

SATAN TO DANA.

The Danville News publishes the following special dispatch:

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—The following has been received by Charles A. Dana, of this city:

SULPHUR LAKE, Nov. 1. Charles A. Dana, my old yokefellow:

I notice that it is insinuated that I inspired the Chinese forgery on Garfield. I confess to tempting Eve, to rattling Job, to running those hogs into the sea, to entering into Judas, to being a brother rebel to Jeff Davis, of making all the Democratic platforms, and that the Democratic party is my most potent agent for devilry in this country; but, sir, I deny the authorship of the forged Chinese letter. That was the inspiration of Barnum, a weaker, wicker and more ignorant person than I am. I am an old scholar, I do not spell the plural of company with a y, I do not say "the question of employes."

For the sake of my general reputation for brains and honesty, and to save me for future work in the Democratic party, publish this denial, and greatly oblige your great party leader, —THE DEVIL.

NEW YORK, November 3.—Our latest information indicates Oregon and California very close on the electoral vote, and we shall require the official count in those two States as well as in New Jersey to determine the result.

The Senate is a tie, General Arthur having the casting vote.

We have 16 to 18 majority in the lower house, and Garfield, on the electoral vote, will not have less than 220.

S. W. DORSEY.

NASHVILLE, Nov. 2.—Partial returns from 34 counties give Wright 25,149; Hawkins 25,178; Wilson 12,523. Wilson will beat Wright 10,000 in Middle Tennessee, but is far behind in East and West Tennessee. The race for governor is really between Wright, Funder-Democrat, and Hawkins, Republican. The Republicans have elected 10 members of the Legislature in Shelby county and 6 in Davidson, and it is thought they will have control of the Legislature, thus securing the U. S. Senator and state officers. Wright's majority in Davidson county over Wilson will be 2,300, which is about equal to Hawkins. It is thought the latter is elected.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—Brooklyn gives

Hancock 9,579 majority.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—The city elects to the Assembly eighteen Democrats and six Republicans. Latest returns show the vote on Mayor as follows: Grace,

Dem., 98,051; Dowd, Rep., 96,748;

Grace's majority, 1,303. Forty-five election districts missing. Vote for Register is: Docharty, Dem., 101,214; Hess,

Rep., 93,524; Docharty's majority, 7,720.

Fifteen elective districts missing. It was expected that the Republicans might capture these two offices.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—The Democrats have carried 3 Congressional Districts in Brooklyn, and have elected nine of the twenty Assemblymen.

Brooklyn elects three (all Democrats)

Congressmen, Bliss, Smith, and Robinson. Smith, defeated Chittenden by over 2,000.

The Times gives a list of members elected to the Forty-seventh Congress, as far as ascertained, and divides them politically, as follows: Republicans, 150; democrats, 132; Greenback, 5.

The following is the complete city vote for Presidential Electors in this city:

Hancock, 123,102; 41,720.

The indications last night from the vote were that the Republican majority in the state of New York would be about 40,000.

Hancock's majority in the city proves to be 41,000; instead of 31,000, as was then supposed, and to-day's returns from the state do not bear the same ratio to the city as last night. Consequently the Republican majority is not so heavy as was first thought. Garfield's total majority at 2 this (Thursday) morning are 82,963, while Hancock's majorities are 60,638, leaving the Republican candidate 22,325 ahead.—

This may reach 25,000, but it will not exceed that figure. Of the 60 counties in the state the Democrats have gained five in 1875 they carried 23. The Republicans lose three Congressmen, and the delegation will stand 21 Republicans to 12 democrats. In the Assembly there will be a Republican majority of 34, and a Republicans majority of 52 on joint ballot in the legislature.

The total city vote gives Grace 2,904 majority for mayor. Docharty, for register, has 8,300 majority.

EMIRIA, N. Y., Nov. 3.—Richardson, rep., is re-elected in the Twenty-ninth

Congressional District by 1,300 majority over Rev. Mr. Beecher, Fusion candidate.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—The World says

ILLINOIS: COOK COUNTY.

CHICAGO, November 3.—Returns from the city complete give a total vote of over 81,000, of which Garfield has 42,484; Hancock, 32,913; Republican Garfield got 54,312, Hancock 43,

592.—Republican majority of 10,940.

This is a Republican gain in this county of over 11,000 compared with the election of 1876, and a Republican gain of about 10,000 in the city. The vote in both the city and county was the largest by 5,000 ever cast. Weaver's vote was significant. Returns on Congressmen are somewhat scanty, but it is likely that Farwell and Aldrich will have majorities of about 5,000, and Davis will have from 1,000 to 2,000.

Nothing more definite as to the Congressional delegation of the State, but the Republicans have gained one certainly and possibly three.

Chicago, November 3.—Returns from 377 towns and precincts outside Chicago and Cook county give the net Republican gains at 3,229. Including

Cook county the net Republican gain in the State, so far as heard from, is over 14,000, which makes the majority in that section of the State 45,000;

at this rate there will be in the neighborhood of 15,000 majority in the State, and it may be considered above that figure.

LAKE COUNTY.

Waukegan, November 3.—Returns from 15 of the 18 polling places in Lake county give Garfield 2,913 votes,

Hancock 1,491. In the other precinct

Garfield's majority is 48; majority in the county 1,290. Farwell for Congress has in the same precincts 2,788, and Smith 1,440. As Farwell has a majority of 40 in the remaining two his majority in the county is 1,338, or over 100 greater than Garfield's.

DE WITT.

Clinton, November 3.—Latest returns give Garfield 185 majority in this county; Stevenson, democrat, has one vote more than Smith, republican candidate for Congress. The entire republicans county ticket, and candidates for the Legislature are elected.

WASHINGTON.

Nashville, November 3.—Cullom 400 majority. Needles elected State Senator and two republican representatives.

This is a gain of one Senator and one representative.

HENRY.

Cambridge, November 3.—Henry county complete; Garfield 4,466, Hancock 2,050, Weaver 730, Cullom 4,407,

Trumbull 1,914, Streator 947, Henderson 4,469, Truesdell 1,942.

BUREAU.

Princeton, November 3.—Cullom's majority in Bureau county is about 1,450.

CLARK.

Marshall, November 3.—Cullom has bull's majority, 340.

ty about 100 Democratic.

EFFINGHAM.

Effingham, November 3.—This county gives Trumbull 1,700 majority—a slight republican gain.

M'LEAN.

Bloomington, November 3.—Republicans majority about 1,800; on congressmen, 1,200.

PIATT.

Monticello, November 3.—Garfield's majority in this county 275; Cullom runs ahead of the ticket. Republicans elect everything in the county and district.

CONGRATULATIONS.

CLEVELAND, O., Nov. 3.—Among the congratulatory telegrams received by General Garfield to day were the following:

New York, Nov. 3.

To Hon. James A. Garfield: Am too tired to talk, but not so fatigued that I cannot congratulate you on our glorious victory. Your own course has been wonderfully wise for yourself and comforting to your friends. Governor Jewell is jubilant and deserves to be.

ry you have obtained. God bless you.</
